

The Farley Moody Galbraith Endowed Scholarship

The Department of Art and Art History announces a call to ART and ARH majors to apply for The Farley Moody Galbraith Endowed Scholarship.

Mrs. Galbraith established this specialized scholarship to support talented students of the department who demonstrate financial or personal need. It is important to the Galbraith family that this scholarship be awarded to students who have faced hardships in either their personal lives or may be unable to attend college without additional support.

Applicants will compete in the general scholarship competition. Students are eligible to apply for both merit and need-based scholarships. Need-based applicants will submit an additional confidential statement in order to be considered.

Eligibility requirements:

In order to be eligible to apply for the Farley Moody Galbraith scholarships, students must meet the following requirements.

- Declared ARH or ART major with at least 3 credit hours completed in the major at the University of Alabama.
- Demonstrated financial need (described in statement of application)
- No minimum GPA requirements
- Full-time enrollment at UA as an ARH major for at least one semester of the 2023-2024 academic year (Fall 2023, Spring 2024, Summer 2024)
- Previous scholarship recipients are eligible.

To apply:

Complete the application and all requirements for the merit-based scholarships PLUS include in your application a 1-page statement labeled “FMG statement of need” that details financial or personal need. Please describe how a scholarship award will benefit you. This information will be kept confidential within the scholarship committee.

All materials must be received by January 27, 2023 at noon. Applications should be submitted in one PDF attachment via email at uaartscholarship@ua.edu.
